MRS. G. C. WALTERS IS DEAD AT BROWNWOOD

WIFE OF CAMERON LUMBERMAN DIES THERE TUESDAY EVENING.

News of the death of Mrs. G. C. Walters which occurred at Brownwood Tuesday evening was received in Cameron by Mrs. J. B. White in a telegram filed shortly after her death which occurred about eight o'clock.

Mrs. Walters resided in Cameron with her husband prior to 1923 but was taken to Brownwood for her health when it was found that she had tuberculosis.

G. C. Walters was manager of the Milam County Lumber Company here and is now with the company in Brownwood.

Mrs. Walters is survived by her husband and two small sons, all of them well known in Cameron. Deceased was a member of the Baptist church in Cameron.

This message has caused profound sadness, as all were interested in Mrs. Walters brave fight to regain her health which became seriously impaired about a year and a half ago when she went west hoping to be benefited by a change of climate. At times it was necessary for her to be separated from her husband and two little boys while she battled alone. Last fall, Mr. Walters asked for a transfer from Cameron to Brownwood and he and the children have been with her constantly since that time. He has been untiring in his devotion and will have the sympathy of the citizens of Cameron in his great bereavement.

TO THE VOTERS OF CAMERON.

I wish to express my thanks and appreciation for the support given me at the city primary election Tuesday and feel extremely grateful to those who again made it possible for me to lead the ticket. I realize the office belongs to the people and not to the individual, hence your almost unanimous approval makes me feel that my services have been satisfactory. I promise the same attention to the affairs of the office in the future as in the past.

Yours very truly,
DAN TYSON.

CAMERON PAYS TRIBUTE TO WOODROW WILSON

Memorial Services for the late President Woodrow Wilson who died in the city of Washington Sunday February 3 and who was buried there on Wednesday, February 6, were held in the District court room of the court house Wednesday afternoon beginning at two o'clock.

The service was a most impressive tribute to the memory of the late President, a number of local speakers appearing on the program to pay tribute to the departed statesman. More than three hundred people were gathered for the service.

Mayor J. B. White presided at the meeting, introducing the speakers and directing the program. Mrs. W. T. Hefley led the songs. The Star Spangled Banner and "America" and "Nearer My God to Thee" being the songs for the service.

The invocation was said by Rev. E. S. Hutcherson, pastor of the Baptist church. "Wilson the Christian" by Rev. H. R. McFadyen, pastor of the Presbyterian church was the first address of tribute, the pastor reviewing the life of the late president, telling of his great Christian character and devotion to the church.

MONROE HOPKINS SHOWS ARE COMING TO CAMERON

AMERICAN LEGION BRINGING GREAT ENTERTAINMENT TO THIS CITY.

From all reports Cameron is to have a real treat in the coming of the Hopkins Players who are to appear at their Tent Theatre to be located on North Central Avenue next week.

Plays such as the "Brat" and big time vaudeville will be the type of entertainment given with a change of program each night.

The Hopkins Players are coming under auspices Local American Legion.

Rockdale, Texas, Feb. 2, 1924.

To whom it May Concern:
This is to certify that Monroe Hopkins Players show has just completed the most successful week that I have ever witnessed in my life from every point of view.

They have been showing here this week under the auspices of the American Legion, and I can truthfully state that it was even greatly above our expectations. We have had to turn away people every night because of the like of seating capacity. Not would the tent have held more seats. Last night we brought in about one hundred extra seats and still had to turn people away.

As for the quality of plays and amusement it gives in its performances, I can say, for instance the show alone that I saw last night I think was the best show that I ever saw in my life, in fact I can truthfully state it held my pleasing attention every minute of the play, and I enjoyed it more than I did shows that I remember of having seen in Chicago, and paid as high as $3 to see.

As for the American Legion I can say that we have never dealt with a more cleaner and pleasing amusement company.

Yours truly,
HOMER H. TURNER,
Post Adj. Carlyle Post 358, American Legion, Rockdale, Texas.

ADVANCE POSTED IN MINERVA CRUDE OIL.

There has been another advance in the price of Minerva crude oil. On Saturday February 2 the Owens Refining Company of Cameron posted an increase of 25c per barrel bringing the present total price to $1.60 in the Minerva field.

This is the third price increase in the oil of the field since last fall and the second increase to be posted this year.

Hon. T. S. Henderson spoke on "Wilson the Statesman" taking the life of the late President from the time of his entry into the politics of the country. He said that Texas felt a peculiar pride in the achievements of the late President for it had been the work of the Texas delegation to the Baltimore convention that brought about the nomination of Wilson and changing the current of American History. His achievements as a statesman and world thinker were eulogized by the speaker.

District Attorney A. J. Lewis spoke on "Wilson the War President" brought to the minds of the people the great sacrifices of the war and the superb and resolute leadership of the late president as commander in chief of the American forces. Quoting extracts from the war message of the President the district attorney in fine bursts of eloquence spoke of the leadership of the late president.

Taps were sounded by Jack Foster, band leader, and in silence the audience stood while Rev. R. S. Marshall of the First Methodist said the benediction.

ROY LAW IS CANDIDATE FOR COUNTY COLLECTOR

SEEKS NOMINATION FOR OFFICE OF TAX COLLECTOR IN JULY PRIMARY.

C. R. Law, better known to the people of Milam county as Roy Law, has announced his candidacy for the office of Tax Collector, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary next July. Mr. Law is a Milam county boy. He was born on a farm near Ad Hall twenty-nine years ago, the son of S. W. Law, one of the most prominent citizens and farmers of the county, who has for the past several years been Secretary-Treasurer of the Cameron Cemetery Association. He is of pioneer stock, being a grandson of L. R. Dockery, who came to Milam County from Missouri in the days when the settlers were still fighting the Indians. His paternal grandfather is C. W. Law, who moved from Alabama to Texas in 1872. He was educated in the Ad Hall and Cameron schools, and for many years was bookkeeper and one of the owners of the Law-Sprinkle Mercantile Company, in which position he gained a valuable business experience.

Since 1920 he has been engaged in farming. His boyhood on the farm and his recent farming experience bring him into close sympathy with the farmers of the county and make him particularly familiar with their needs.

Mr. Law has the following statement to make in regard to his candidacy: "I promise, if elected, to give the people of Milam county the most efficient service possible in the Tax Collector's office. I will use the best business methods available to keep the tax records in up to date shape, so that any citizen may quickly and at all times find out the amount of his taxes, and also whether there are any back taxes against his land. I will use the methods any other business man would use to see that his bills are paid, and that none go delinquent. I will go over the county in advance of tax paying time, advising the people as to their tax tangles and furnishing them with statements, so that they can pay their taxes with the least possible confusion. In this connection, I will use every effort to so systematize the work that the January rush will be handled smoothly, and receipts issued promptly. I will keep the automobile license records in such shape as to facilitate the issuance of license transfer, and seals, and also to enable owners to quickly trace the record and find out any necessary facts as

To the People of Cameron:

"I feel very grateful for the splendid support given me by my friends everywhere and although I lost the nomination by 91 votes for a second term in office. I have accepted defeat with the pledge that I will play the part of a good citizen and pledge my aid and co-operation with the next administration which will be led by Judd G. Davis, a most excellent citizen, gentleman and worthy in every way of the trust that has been placed in him by the great and noble people of Cameron.

"Because it is not given to us always to occupy places of leadership and responsibility, we should not shrink our plain duty, for we must be first of all good citizens. The part of the layman in the government is all-important and my earnest desire is that I will always measure up to the responsibilities of a good citizen. When I have done this, and not until I have done this, will I have lived to keep the faith.

"I feel that I am ready to lay down the burden, believing that my work will not go unappreciated by the good people and trusting they will overlook the mistakes I have made and that the bitter things of the campaign will be forgotten and forgiven as they have already been forgotten and forgiven by me. Mr. Reaves has been in the office for six years and appreciates the support and splendid co-operation of the people during this period of time.

The retirement of Mr. Reaves from the race marks the close of an efficient public career in this office and his friends everywhere will be interested in his announcement and regret he cannot serve further.

MORE TAX-FREE PEOPLE—LESS TAX-FREE BONDS.

Nothing is more constructive than the recommendation to Congress by President Coolidge that taxes be scaled down and that the issuance of tax free bonds be stopped.

The people demand relief from taxes and they are not concerned whose plan is accepted whether it be that of the republicans or that of the democrats, just so that the plan adopted shall accomplish the most in tax reduction.

The people realize that a heavy sur-tax on large incomes not only diverts to the public treasury large sums which might better be turned into the channels of commerce and industry but that in the ultimate end this burden finally falls on the shoulders of the consumer.

The people are just as insistent on the discontinuance of tax-free bonds the purchase of which affords investors an opportunity to escape tax burdens entirely while others less fortunate must bear this burden in addition to their own, a condition so devoid of justice and fairness as to effect its own condemnation.

Both these reforms have been put before Congress in a way that permits of no evasion of responsibility. It is up to Congress to act. Failure to act, for whatever reason, will precipitate such a revolution in the public mind that those responsible, whether they be the "blocs" or other "round robins," may well prepare for condign retribution at the hands of a betrayed electorate.

President Coolidge has recommended nothing more than tax-distressed people are entitled to. Nothing less will be satisfactory. The people endured war burdens patiently and patriotically. With each succeeding year they now not only ask but rightly demand that these burdens be lifted from their shoulders to the extent that an economical administration of public affairs makes possible.

Let us have more tax-free people and less tax-free bonds.

LEGISLATOR FROM CORPUS CHRISTI OUT FOR GOVERNORSHIP.

W. E. POPE

Corpus Christi, Texas, Feb. 6.—Representative W. E. Pope of Corpus Christi has announced his candidacy for the governorship of Texas, subject to the action of the Democratic primaries in July.

In 1916, 1918, 1920 and 1922 Mr. Pope was chosen Representative from the Corpus Christi district without opposition. In his announcement for Governor, Mr. Pope contends that the people's taxes are high enough and there is ample money to pay the present Treasury deficit and run the State Government if the money is judiciously expended.

Mr. Pope is an advocate of retrenchment and has even retrenched on his platform to the extent that he will make the race for Governor on what he says is the shortest platform ever written—"no more taxes, no time, no place, against nobody nor nothing."

SOCIETY NEWS

BY MRS. JEFF T. KEMP

CHOIR ENTERTAINS FOR DEPARTING DIRECTOR.

Last Monday night the Anglin Street Methodist choir met with Mrs. K. E. Shirer on North Anglin street and gave Mrs. Charles Peyton a surprise party. Mrs. Peyton has been the efficient director for the choir for the last year and has endeared herself to every member of the choir as well as to the entire membership of the church.

Mrs. Peyton is leaving the city and the entire church, and more especially the members of the choir will feel the loss very keenly. Mrs. Peyton is a tireless sweet spirited Christian worker, and her place will be hard to fill.

Although it was raining and the weather was uncomfortable, almost every member of the choir was present to show how keenly they would feel their loss, and to try to show their love and appreciation for their director.

The choir presented Mr. Peyton with a beautiful console set.

Games and contests were the program for the evening. Chas. Peyton proved his musical ability, when in the musical contest he gave the title of "Sweet Bye and Bye" to "Silver Threads Among the Gold" when played on the piano. It was a jolly crowd and the Shirer's know how to make every body have a good time.

Refreshments brought by the members were served, and every body went home feeling proud that they belonged to the Anglin Street Methodist choir.

LYCEUM NUMBER.

The program rendered by the El Day Quartette in the Yoe High school auditorium Tuesday evening was most entertaining and gave pleasure to the holders of Lyceum season tickets who purchased tickets for that program only. Each member of the quartette was artistic in his interpretations but Messrs. Bohannon and Callum especially pleased their Cameron hearers.

The Lyceum course for the winter has been fostered by the ladies of the Methodist Missionary Society, who secured the course through the Dixie Lyceum Bureau. The numbers already given were each good but the climax will be reached Monday evening March 2nd when a ladies saxophone orchestra of seven pieces will appear to please and entertain a Cameron audience. Those who miss the Ladies Rainbow Orchestra will lose a rare musical treat.

MRS. A. J. SMITH ENTERTAINS AT BRANCHVILLE.

Quite unique and interesting in every detail was the hospitality tendered the club members by Mrs. A. J. Smith Thursday afternoon. As the guests entered the home they could not fail to notice the three inseparable tokens of spring, the blue bird, the violet, and the heart attractively and artistically arranged throughout the rooms.

Hot tea and sandwiches were served upon the arrival of the guests.

Instead of the usual tally cards to designate the place and partner of the players a miniature vase containing a very small slip of purple paper giving this information was passed.

The vase which was of a very delicate shade of green was tied with lavender ribbon and as each player progressed a violet was placed in the vase.

Music was furnished throughout the games by Miss Lerene Ruby at the piano as well as a number of selections on the victrola. After the games the hostess who was assisted in serving by Mrs. M. R. Looney and little Miss Virginia Looney, served charlotte russe and individual angel cakes. All carrying out the lavender and purple color scheme, also daintily arranged nests full of eggs which were soon divested of their sweets despite the faithfulness of the two small blue birds watching over them.

As 84 favors the successful players were permitted to draw from a lovely purple basket, a lavender ribbon to which was attached a blue bird, a bunch of violets or a valentine bearing a heart.

Those present other than club members, were Mrs. L. L. Blaylock and Miss Virginia Looney.

The ninth birthday of Freeman (Mutt) Slocumb was celebrated in a fitting manner by thirty of his little friends who had received written invitations the week before to help him celebrate on February 2nd at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Slocumb.

At the hour of three the party began. Mutt met his friends with a broad smile as each came with a prettily tied gift for his outstretched hand. In the parlor his mother had placed a birthday cake with the lucky symbols within, circled with nine lighted candles. As the candles were blown out each guest expressed a wish for the honoree's future success and happiness. In the cutting, the dime was found by Lula May Paddock, the button by Frank Adams, the thimble by Patay McGregor and the needle by Annie Frances Navratil.

Games in the yard were enjoyed and then the dining room was thrown open and for each child around, the table was found a cricket decorated with a red, yellow or green ribbon streamer which extended to the big crickets nest in the center where a Hershey cricket egg was hidden to be eaten with cream cones. After this feast more games in the yard were followed by the leavetaking and many wishes for the happy returns of Mutt's birthday.

Robert Sloan Ryan was the honoree at an al fresco birthday party Wednesday afternoon at the City Park. His mother, Mrs. John Ryan, had invited all of the kindergarten pupils to share the pleasures of the party with him.

Miss Gladys Watson and Mrs. T. S. Henderson, Jr., assisted Mrs. Webb in serving a refreshment course which conformed to the Valentine theme.

Other than club members: Mrs. Webb's guests were Mesdames Hilry Stedman, Edwin York, G. C. White, James Watson, Leland Green, Walter Newton and Miss Gladys Watson.

ANGEL-HARRIS.

Married January 23 at the Baptist parsonage, Mr. Jim Angel and Miss Inez Harris. At home 1301 Beaumont Street, Waco, Texas.

Both parties have many friends who wish them much happiness.

Mrs. Leland Green entertained a group of forty friends last Thursday afternoon with 42 in honor of her visiting niece, Mrs. Cooper Schaudies of La Grange, Ga. The approaching valentine season gave the inspiration for home decorations and game necessities. Red hearts were used to form showers about the room and graced the chandeliers. Festoons of of hearts and cupids draped the windows. Vases of vivid carnations gave bright touches of color to the rooms.

Then tables spread with crimson covers numbered with red hearts, and outfitted in the valentine motif, were arranged for the players. A tempting salad course with tea was followed by Charlotte Russe with angel cake squares. Friends of the hostess from Cameron and Rockdale formed the personnel. In hostess duties Mrs. Leland Green was assisted by Mesdames A. N. Green, C. N. Green, Miss Mary Frances Green and Mrs. Lena Baskin.

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH.

A knowledge of the Word of God gives culture and character. It appears that many parents do not care whether or not their children have culture and Christian character. Else they would have them in the Sunday School.

The sermon subject for Sunday are:

"Christian Warfare," 11 a. m.
"Awake thou that Sleepest," 7:15 p. m.

The prayer meeting lesson for next Wednesday night is the Parable of the unmerciful servant. This teaches the unmerciful servant. This teaches Matt. xiii 21-35.

WANTED.

Young men and young women to enjoy our church services. We do not believe that the church is for the old people alone. We are for them and appreciate every tottering footstep that comes our way. But with them we want a great throng of young people to come in and get the inspiration of our services.

We offer you a musical program that is worth your coming to hear, also a gospel message in sermon you will do well to heed.

Sunday night the Pastor will deliver his second sermon on "The Second Coming of Christ." You will have to come early if you get a back seat.

AMERICA MOURNS PASSING OF WOODROW WILSON

War President Meets Death In Peaceful Sleep

Washington, Feb. 3.—Former President Wilson died at 11:15 o'clock this morning.

The place of his entombment and where his funeral will be public or private will be determined later.

The end was peaceful. Life ebbed away while he slept.

A tired man, he closed his eyes, and, "sustained and soothed by an unflinching trust" passed on to the great hereafter "like one who wraps the drapery of his couch about him and lies down to pleasant dreams."

Dr. Grayson, his friend and physician announced the end of the great war president in this bulletin:

"Mr. Wilson died at 11:15 o'clock. His heart's action became feebler and feebler, and the heart muscle was so fatigued that it refused to act any longer. The end came peacefully."

"The remote causes of death lie in his ill health which began more than four years ago, namely: General arterio sclerosis with haemophilia. The immediate cause of death was exhaustion following a digestive disturbance which began in the early part of last week but did not reach an acute stage until the early morning hours of February 1."

Last Friday the grim reaper had forced his way into the house after waiting on the door step more than four years. Saturday he had advanced to the landing on the stair case and stood counting off the ticks of the great clock. Saturday night he knocked at the chamber door. A faithful physician and a loyal wife stood with their backs against it. At 9 o'clock he rattled the knob and called to the peaceful, prostrate figure on the bed—a great bed, long and wide, a replica of the bed in which Abraham Lincoln slept at the White House with a golden American eagle and a tiny silk American flag just over the head board.

The watchers knew the battle was lost. At the portal of the door now open, the faithful negro servant hovered; on the bed sitting beside her husband, sustained with all the fortitude and composure of a woman facing a crisis, was Mrs. Wilson, holding between her hands the wan, withered, right hand that had proved the pen mightier than the sword. Near the foot of the bed was his eldest daughter, Margaret, resigned to the inevitable; close by tears welling from his eyes and coursing down his cheeks was Dr. Grayson, taking the measure of the fluttering pulse, weaker and fainter with each effort.

Death advanced and beckoned for the last time. The tired, worn-out man drew one breath, there was a slight flutter of the eyelids, an almost imperceptible twitch of the nostrils.

Woodrow Wilson's soul had drifted out on the great dark tide that runs around the world.

Out through a city stilled in a Sabbath morning's reverential calm, his name was being spoken from a hundred pupils. In the Central Presbyterian church, where he faithfully went to worship while the flesh was able, a choked up congregation had sung "The Son of God Goes Forth to War," "How Firm a Foundation," and "Onward Christian Soldiers," favorite hymns in which he loved to lift his voice in a happier, better day. Over a great land that had acclaimed him chief, and in lands across the seas where he had been hailed as a god of peace, prayers were rising for the repose of his soul.

In the street before the square brick house where he had lived with his memories, his hopes and his regrets, was another scene. There was a gathering of people there. It was not a crusading throng come to a mecca in pilgrimage to attest their faith in the ideals he personified. It was a group of men and women kneeling on the pavement in silent prayer. Small prayer slips bearing the inscription "Peace on Earth, Good Will Toward men," held in their hands, fluttered in the chill winds which swirled up the debris and litter left there by the watchers engaged in the solemnity of the death watch that the world might know.

"Mr. Wilson is attaining the peace that passeth all understanding," said the leader while throngs sank to their knees and remained in silence for a minute. Then a sickly sun broke through a cloud bank. A little native warbler, a pilgrim venturing north in search of early sun and spring stonped for a moment and from his twig aloft uttered a happy note.

Almost at that moment, Mr. Wilson was passing on.

Immediately the great government over which he presided for eight years began taking steps to give marks of its respect. President Coolidge heard the word of Mr. Wilson's death while in church with Mrs. Coolidge.

Immediately at the conclusion of the services he drove to the Wilson home and left cards. Later he sent his secretary to offer any aid whatever.

Flags on government buildings and government property everywhere were lowered to half mast. The news went to many posts everywhere and to the ships at sea. A thirty day period of official mourning was ordered as the government had done for Colonel Roosevelt and other former presidents. Congress arranged to adjourn tomorrow, executive departments were ordered closed on the day of the funeral; social activities at the White House coming within the period of mourning were ordered abandoned.

Official telegrams were dispatched to the embassies and legations abroad for the information of foreign governments. One cablegram going to far off Siam carried the news to Mr. Wilson's daughter, Mrs. Francis Bowes Sayre. She is with her husband at Bangkok, where he is advisor to the Siamese government. Another telegram was dispatched to Mr. Wilson's other daughter, Mrs. William G. McAdoo who with her husband and children is speeding to Washington on a train from the west.

Mr. Wilson's last words of sustained meaning were spoken Friday. They were:

"I am ready."

Realizing fully that he could not hope to rally from the onslaught of the digestive disorder which sapped his strength, weakened his heart and accentuated the condition which followed his first stroke of paralysis, he watched for a moment when all except Dr. Grayson were out of his bed chamber. Drawing his friend and physician close, he murmured with some difficulty of articulation:

"The old machine has broken down. You've done your best for me. But it's better that I should go than to live on a helpless invalid. Tell Mrs. Wilson I want her. I'm ready."

All this was without show or emotion, but in his usual measured habit of speaking. Mrs. Wilson came at his physician's call and spoke for several moments with her husband during which he communicated to her some last wishes.

From that time on Mr. Wilson lived out his fast fleeting life with the full knowledge that he was on the threshold of the great beyond. If in his dying moments he harbored any feeling at all for the men in his life who prevented the fulfillment of the ideals for which he repeatedly had said he would have been glad to give his life, he never gave any indication of them.

He never spoke a complete sentence after that and merely was able to whisper "yes" and "no" to gentle inquiries of how he might be made more comfortable. When he no longer had strength to do that he gave his answers by making a motion with his head. Even then and until Saturday night he was able to recognize those about him. With the last sinking spell Saturday night, however, he fell into a state of complete prostration and fitful slumber in which his vitality slowly but surely ebbed out. This morning found his pulse fluttering more feebly and feebly until the end.

Mr. Wilson's place of entombment and the manner of his funeral will be decided as nearly as his family is able to do with regard for what he himself may have wished.

It is certain that he will not be buried in Rome, Ga., which is the burial place of his first wife. It is unlikely that he will be buried in Columbia, S. C., the burial place of his father and mother. It is certain that he will not be buried at Princeton, N. J., although a burial there has been suggested. It seems certain also that he will not be buried in Arlington National cemetery.

It is more likely that he will be entombed temporarily here in Washington at one of the local cemeteries to rest there until the national memorial which is sure to mark his final tomb is prepared. Where that may be is still a matter of conjecture. At one time Mr. Wilson himself considered choosing his birth place, Staunton, Va., but later gave it up.

Those about him feel that a memorial, wherever located, should be easy of access to the thousands who will come to call it a shrine; and the capital of the United States where he rose to his greatest fame naturally has suggested itself as the place.

It is not improbable that his body may rest for a time at least in the great national cathedral now rising on Mount Saint Albans, overlooking the city from the northwest section. It is planned to have a place of sepulchre for the nation's great dead there, after the manner of Westminster Abbey in England.

Mr. Wilson's active pall bearers will be chosen later from among the men who were most closely associated with him during his terms in the presidency. Honorary pall bearers probably will be selected from men of congress, from which a committee will be delegated.

Whether the funeral services will be private or a great public ceremony probably will be determined tomorrow when the date and the place of interment probably will be decided on.

A death mask was made today for the use and guidance of sculptors and other artists.

A Story of Success

How Studebaker Cars became leaders

145,000 people last year paid $200,000,000 for them

THE most talked-about cars among fine cars are the Studebaker Sixes—at $975 and up. Sales have almost trebled in the past three years. The demand for these cars, growing by leaps and bounds, has been Motordom's chief sensation.

Over $200,000,000 was last year spent for Studebaker models.

Now we wish to explain, to all who are interested, the reasons for that success.

Studebaker has always led

For 72 years the name Studebaker has stood for quality and class.

Studebaker equipages, in the carriage days, held premier place. The White House owned them in the days of Grant and Harrison.

Now we make motor cars only. But the Studebaker name, in this modern field, simply had to maintain its prestige.

We had the money, we had the incentive—we who now control. And our one ambition has been to maintain the Studebaker place.

$90,000,000 assets behind us

Studebaker assets are $90,000,000. We have $50,000,000 in modern plants and equipment.

Not old plants re-adapted. We have spent $32,000,000 in new plants in five years. We have equipped them with 12,500 up-to-date machines.

Over $8,000,000 was spent on drop forge plants alone. Another $10,000,000 on body plants, to maintain our prestige in coach building.

We believe that no other plant in the country is so well equipped to build quality cars as Studebaker.

Engineering—$500,000 yearly

We created an engineering department which costs $500,000 yearly.

There are 125 skilled men there who devote their time to studying betterments in cars. They make 500,000 tests yearly.

There is a department of Methods and Standards. They decide and fix every standard in these cars.

We spend $600,000 yearly to machine all surfaces of crank shafts, just as in Liberty Airplane Motors. That is the reason for that perfect balance, that absence of vibration.

Every Studebaker car is Tinkera-equipped. The Special-Six and the Big-Six have more Tinker bearings than any car selling under $5,000 in America. The Light-Six more than any competitive car within $1,000 of its price.

Open cars have real leather upholstery. They cost $25 more per car than imitation leather.

Our closed cars have Chase Mobair upholstery. This is made from the soft fleece of Angora goats. And a Sedan requires from 15 to 16 yards.

Velour for this upholstery would save us up to $100 per car.

Note the finish of every detail. Mark the infinite care. They add 25% to labor cost on luxurious closed bodies.

Note the completeness of our larger closed cars. The nickel-plated bumpers, the extra disc wheels and cord tires, the steel trunk, the courtesy light, etc. Think what they would cost you, bought as extras.

Thus we have made the Studebaker the leader of quality cars. We have built a demand exceeding 145,000 cars per year.

Learn the results of these efforts, in fairness to yourself. Don't buy a car at $1,000 or over without knowing what we offer.

Compare the parts and details. Mark the advantages we offer—scores on scores. Our experience is that 95% of those who do that buy a Studebaker car.

The price of quality

On some steel alloys for vital parts we pay 15% extra to get them exact.

FIERY, ITCHY SKIN QUICKLY SOOTHED BY THIS SULPHUR

Mentho-Sulphur, a pleasant cream, will soothe and heal skin that is irritated or broken out with eczema; that is covered with ugly rash or pimples, or is rough or dry. Nothing subdues fiery skin eruptions so quickly, says a noted skin specialist.

The moment this sulphur preparation is applied the itching stops and after two or three applications, the eczema is gone and the skin is delightfully clear and smooth. Sulphur is so precious as a skin remedy because it destroys the parasites that cause the burning, itching or disfigurement. Mentho-Sulphur always heals eczema right up.

A small jar of Rowles Mentho-Sulphur may be had at any good drug store.

T. S. HENDERSON HEADS JEFFERSON MEMORIAL

CHAIRMAN FOR FUND DRIVE IN CAMERON—QUOTA IS $250 HERE.

New York, Feb. 5.—Announcement was made today at the National Headquarters of the Thomas Jefferson Memorial Foundation that T. S. Henderson, Attorney, Henderson, Kidd & Henderson of Cameron, had been appointed Chairman of the Committee in that city, which will raise the city's quota of the $1,000,000 fund needed for the acquisition and endowment, as a national memorial of Monticello, Jefferson's home, in Albemarle County, Virginia.

The quota for Cameron is only $250 which based on an estimated population of 4,000, means contribution of a few cents per capita.

The low total assigned to Cameron, and the modest per capita contribution asked from the people of that city is in line with the aim of the Board of Governors of the Jefferson Memorial Foundation, who are seeking a thoroughly national participation in the project of making a National Shrine of Monticello and are hopeful that every community in every state of the Union will bear its share in making up the fund.

The Thomas Jefferson Memorial Foundation was organized on April 13th last, the 180th anniversary of Jefferson's birthday, for the sole purpose of establishing his home as a permanent national memorial. The movement inaugurated under its auspices is the only one of the many projects undertaken during the past fifty years to make of Monticello a public shrine, similar to Washington's home at Mount Vernon, that has met with any substantial measures of success. Those preceding it failed because of the unwillingness of the owner to part with the property.

The Jefferson memorial foundation has, however, actually made a first payment—the sum of $109,000—on the property. The contract purchase price calls for a payment of $500,000 for the Jefferson estate, which includes, besides the beautiful dwelling built by Jefferson, with its furnishings and equipment, and many outbuildings, some 680 acres of land located on one of the lower heights of the Blue Ridge in a most picturesque and beautiful section of the Old Dominion. This sum of $100,000 was raised from contributors in New York state through the efforts of United States Senator Royal S. Copeland, the state chairman of the Foundation, and Manny Strauss, the National Vice-Chairman of the organization.

Such surprise was created by the consent of the owner to part with the property and by the payment to him of this installment of $100,000, in view of the many preceding futile efforts to make of Monticello a permanent public memorial to Jefferson that it has inspired misleading reports that this Foundation has completed its work. This is not the case, as there is still $400,000 more to be paid on the purchase price of the property and the Foundation plans to raise the other $500,000 of the $1,000,000 fund, to create an endowment fund for the maintenance of Monticello and for its administration as an active force for the dissemination of Jefferson's ideals.

To Virginia belongs the honor of being the first sovereign state in history to enact a law insuring freedom of religious belief and worship to its citizens; and to Thomas Jefferson, its gifted son, belongs the credit for this great achievement. He wrote the Virginia Statute for Religious Freedom and led the seven years' fight for its adoption and had the pleasure thereafter of seeing the principle he so warmly espoused incorporated in the Constitution of the United States through the first amendment.

It is hardly surprising therefore that men and women of all religious faiths are enthusiastic in their support of the movement to establish a fitting tribute in a permanent memorial to Jefferson at Monticello. The Foundation recently announced that representatives of three great religious bodies had accepted membership on its Board of Governors. They are the Most Reverend Patrick J. Hayes, Roman Catholic Archbishop of New York; Reverend Dr. Nathan Krass, Rabbi of the Temple Emanuel, New York; and Reverend Dr. Ernest M. Stires, Rector of St. Thomas' Protestant Episcopal church, New York.

At the same time William Jennings Bryan was elected a Governor, as was also Mrs. Champ Clark, widow of the late Speaker of the National House of Representatives; and Dr. James Whitney Hall, President of the Iroquois Club of Chicago.

Edward F. Albee, President of the Keith's Theatres Company of New York is National Campaign Chairman of the Foundation. Among the members of the Board of Governors are Theodore Roosevelt, Assistant Secretary of the Navy; Alton B. Parker, Democratic candidate for the Presidency against the elder Theodore Roosevelt in 1904; Will H. Hays and Charles D. Hilles, both former chairmen of the Republican National Committee; Wm. G. McAdoo, former Secretary of the Treasury; Mrs. Minnegrade Andrews and Mrs. Rose Gouverneur Hoco, both of Washington, the last mentioned a grand-daughter of President James Monroe, Jefferson's friend and protégé; James W. Gerard, former Ambassador to Germany; Vincent Astor, the first woman member of the British Parliament, formerly Nancy Langhorne, who was born only a dozen miles from Monticello; her sister, Mrs. Charles Dana Gibson, wife of the artist; Bainbridge Colby, former Secretary of State; James R. Sheffield of New York, former President of the National Republican Club; Thomas E. Rush of New York, President of the National Democratic Club; United States Senator Royal S. Copeland of New York; Edwin A. Alderman, President of the University of Virginia, which was founded by Thomas Jefferson; Charles R. Crane, former Minister to China; John W. Davis, former Ambassador to Great Britain; Mrs. E. D. Hotchkiss, Mrs. John Skelton Williams and Mrs. J. Allison Hodges, all of Richmond; Felix M. Warburgh of Nuhn, Leob & Company, the New York banking firm; Justice Arthur S. Tompkins of the New York Supreme Court and Grand Master of Masons for that state, and Judge Martin T. Manton of the United States Circuit Court.

A 30 minute ride will win you to the new Essex

And you will join the legions who know this new Six, that is built by Hudson, in saying it provides ideal transportation.

It continues the well known Essex qualities of economy and reliability. It adds a smoothness of performance which heretofore was exclusively Hudson's. Both cars are alike in all details that count for long satisfactory service at small operating cost.

Steering is like guiding a bicycle. Gear shift easily. Care of the car calls for little more than keeping it lubricated. For the most part that is done with an oil can.

Fuel economy is impressive. Oil consumption is unusually low and tire mileage surprisingly high.

The New Essex is backed by a service policy that keeps maintenance down to the minimum.

Have Kidneys Examined By Your Doctor

Take Salts to Wash Kidneys if
Back Pains You or Bladder
Bothers

Flush your kidneys by drinking a quart of water each day, also take salts occasionally, says a noted authority, who tells us that too much rich food forms acids which almost paralyze the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weakened; then you may suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or side headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To help neutralize these irritating acids, to help cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste, get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days, and your kidneys will be back to normal. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; can not injure and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

COUNTY TOURNAMENT GIRLS' BASKET BALL GOES TO ROCKDALE.

Although the Interscholastic League makes no provision for girls' basket ball, it was decided at a meeting of interested schools at Cameron last Saturday to determine a county championship. The plan will be similar to the one to be used to determine the boys' championship, unless too many teams are entered. In this event elimination games will be played before the tournament.

The date for the girls' tournament has been set for February 22 and 23 at Rockdale. An outside referee will officiate all games. Teams desiring to enter the tournament are requested to notify H. B. Hughes, county director of athletics, at once. No plan can be outlined for the tournament until it is known how many teams wish to enter. Schools are given until Feb. 15 to enter. No special fee is charged but a team must be a member of the Interscholastic League in order to compete.

The following schools have asked to be entered: Ben Arno'd, Ad Hall, Buckholts, Bryant Station, Jones Prairie, Val Verde No. 1, Fox, Tracy and Thorndale. It is probable that Rockdale, Cameron, Sharp and San Gabriel will also enter.—Rockdale Reporter.

ROCKDALE BUILDING AND LOAN PAYS DIVIDENDS.

The Rockdale Building & Loan Association held a directors' meeting and dividend was declared on the past Thursday at which a ten per cent year's business, and the business of the association found to be in flourishing condition. On account of press of personal business Dr. H. T. Coulter tendered his resignation as president and E. T. Kemp was elected to succeed him. It was announced that a stockholders meeting would be held in the near future at which time directors for the ensuing year would be elected.

The Rockdale B. & L. Association is now two years old, and while organized on a small scale it has proven a good town boosting enterprise, while at the same time it has made money for its stockholders. Several homes have been built, on terms advantageous to both the home owner and the association.

Rockdale citizens should get in behind this home industry and enlarge its scope. This could be done by more stockholders taking stock. According to the plans of the association, the stockholders pay in monthly pledges, which they are privileged to draw down in cash at any time after one year. The investment is absolutely safe and the dividends practically certain.—Rockdale Reporter.

NEW LOCATION IS MADE FOR LITTLE RIVER BRIDGE.

Geo. Wickline, engineer for the State Highway Department, together with a Federal engineer, has made a location for the proposed new bridge over Little River, to be used instead of the McCown crossing. The point which they selected for the bridge site is one-fourth mile northeast of the McCown bridge. This new bridge, the cost of which will be borne equally by the State and Milam county District No. 2, will constitute a viaduct for two State highways.

DANGER IN DELAY.

Kidney Diseases Are Too Dangerous
For Cameron People to Neglect.

The great danger of kidney troubles is that they so often get a firm hold before the sufferer recognizes them. Health will be gradually undermined. Backaches, headaches, nervousness, lameness, soreness, lumbar, urinary trouble, dropsy, gravel and Bright's disease may follow as the kidneys get worse. Don't neglect your kidneys. Help the kidneys with Doan's Pills, which are so strongly recommended right here in Cameron.

T. F. Weaver, Box 443, Cameron, says: "I have used Doan's Pills off and on for some time and they have never failed to give me good results. At times I have had slight attacks of backache and the action of my kidneys annoyed me. Doan's Pills always gave me the desired results when I used them for these attacks. I keep Doan's on hand and recommend them as a kidney remedy of merit."

PRUNE TREES NOW.

College Station, Texas, Feb. 5.—

In order to secure the best results in the home orchard it is frequently necessary to prune and trim the trees. This should be done during the winter months while the trees are dormant and before sap begins to rise. Unless one had had previous experience it is advisable to talk to the county farm extension agent about shaping so as to receive the best results.

'MIRACLE BABY' IN FORT WORTH DIES.

Fort Worth, Texas, Feb. 2.—One of the most remarkable demonstrations of the tenacity of life was embodied in the "miracle baby" weighing eighteen ounces when born last Monday to Mrs. Edna Watson, 715 West Seventh street, at a local hospital. The baby died Saturday morning after having fought for life nearly 112 hours with such vigor that the doctors believed for a time that it possible might live.

The baby had been kept in an incubator at a temperature of from 100 to 110 degrees receiving fifty-five drops of milk every hour, and was bathed in olive oil.

It was only ten and a half inches long. When it died its head was a little larger than a golf ball, but its features and body were perfectly formed. It was declared to be the smallest baby to live so long in the knowledge of local physicians, who said that they had never seen a case to equal that of the Fort Worth "Miracle baby."

POULTRY "FANS" OF ROCK- DALE ARE NOW ORGANIZED.

Saturday afternoon, January 26th, the Rockdale Poultry Association was organized under the supervision of Miss Henry, county demonstrator. The following officers were elected: Mrs. D. H. Sanford, president; Mrs. John Scott, secretary-treasurer; Miss Regenbrecht, reporter.

Among other items of interest culling and feeding were discussed. It was decided to meet every second and fourth Saturdays at 2:00 p. m., in the Chamber of Commerce rooms.

The chief aim of the association is to make poultry raising more profitable. All interested in the poultry industry are urged to join. The County Demonstrator will attend all the meetings.—Rockdale Reporter.

A. & M. WILL TRY TO SEND FARM BOYS BACK AS TEACHERS

College Station, Texas, Feb. 5.—The A. & M. College of Texas, will attempt to send the farm boys back to the rural schools as teachers and thus supply the country schools with their first teacher supply fundamentally trained for a perception and appreciation of the problems of country life as encountered in the school room and in the local community environment. The College will do this by offering a modified course in agriculture in which some of the more technical subjects in agriculture are substituted with English, psychology and classroom methodology and which put the institution on a parity with the other colleges and universities of the state by permitting it to award elementary teachers certificates to men who complete the freshman work, high school certificates at the end of their sophomore year and permanent certificates on graduation of the four year course.

MRS. VESS YOUNG SUC-CUMBS TO SHORT ILLNESS.

Mrs. Vess Young died at her home here about nine o'clock Tuesday morning following a brief illness from which she suffered greatly but patiently and courageously. The stock resulting from the announcement of her death, even though it was not unexpected, was crushing and caused many hearts to bleed, even in the face of the fact that everything that human hands could do was done to relieve her suffering.

The funeral service was held at the Baptist church at about eleven o'clock Wednesday morning, conducted by Rev. R. E. Roberts, of Bartlett, a friend of the family of long standing, with interment taking place in the Thorndale Cemetery immediately following the service at the church.

The deceased was in the prime of life and had joined the Baptist church in early girlhood, living a devoted christian life; in fact it is said of her that her life seemed to light the way for others who had been attempting to walk in the faith longer than herself. She taught school several years, prior to her marriage and was much loved by the school children wherever she taught.

The deceased was married to Mr. Vess Young about two years ago and together they had prospered and been very happy together, and her death is one of the saddest to report that this writer has been called upon to report in several years. The Champion in its weak way offer it sincerest sympathy to her heart broken father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Allcorn, and the husband, sisters and brothers, many relatives and friends and trusts that they may find consolation in the beautiful assurance of the happy meeting hereafter which was given them by Rev. Roberts during the service at the church.

Among the out of town people who were here to attend the funeral of Mrs. Vess Young were: Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Berry of Taylor, Bob Wiley and wife of Cameron, Sharp Young of Houston, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Camp of Temple, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Roark of Cameron, and possibly others whose names we failed to learn.—Thorndale Champion.

MAD DOG GOES ON RAMPAGE HERE SUNDAY.

Mattie Lehman, nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Lehman, was bitten by a dog afflicted with hydrophobia on the streets of Thorndale last Sunday afternoon while she was on her way to town to visit and make a purchase at one of the drug store.

The little girl was alone at the time and as she came down the street and approached the building owned by Rev. Sam Elliott in which the Mexican Blue Cross holds its meetings, she met the dog on the sidewalk just as he had snapped at a negro man standing near, who scared the dog away from himself and thought nothing of it at the time, but as the Lehman girl passed the dog attacked her and brought the blood from her left wrist. Mr. Arthur Young approached the scene about that time and fearing that the dog was mad notified Dr. Laurence concerning the incident, who gave first aid relief and the dog was subsequently run down and killed by men who collected for the hunt right away.

The dog had been in town all morning and had attacked Jim Davis while riding his wheel about nine o'clock in the forenoon. Mr. C. W. Gunn who was standing near hit the dog with a rock and drove him away but not suspecting the dog being mad paid but little attention to it further.

After the dog was killed the head was taken to Taylor by Mr. W. D.

June where it was sent to Austin on the Sunshine Special for Examination by the Pastuer Institute the following morning, and the word came back to Thorndale Monday that the dog had Rabies. Mattie Lehman, the victim, was taken to Austin for treatment Monday afternoon.—Thorndale Champion.

SHIRT SLEEVE DIPLOMACY.

A recent cartoon in the Portland Oregonian shows General Dawes sitting on a high stool in his shirt sleeves at the Reparation Commission table which is surrounded by a group of European diplomats garbed in full dress with gold braid and all the tinsel that went with officialdom of the past. Under the table each of these diplomats has a keg of powder a revolver, bowie knife or some other instrument of warfare with which he hopes to gain an advantage over his neighbor.

General Dawes silently watching from his stool, says: "Gentlemen, while I am here, we will play all the cards on the table." Consternation appears on the faces of the diplomats as Dawes makes this statement. For five years jealousy, intrigue, personal ambition and greed have dominated in place of an honest desire to settle the reparations tangle.

The only aim of the American members of the Reparations Commission is to secure an early and peaceful settlement of the financial trouble of Germany which are upsetting the industrial rehabilitation of all of Europe today.

"Diplomatic poker players" in Europe are not going to put over any slight-of-hand tricks on "Hell and Maria" Dawes or O. D. Young while these gentlemen act as representatives of the United States on the Reparations Commission.

The American members of the Commission are paying their own expenses and are living illustration of "shirt sleeve diplomacy" which will appeal to every red blooded American and give new hope to millions of befogged and befuddled European citizens.

THORNDALE ATTORNEY AN-NOUNCES FOR OFFICE.

The much heralded "political Bee" has been snooping around in these parts recently and has thrown his harpoon into one of Thorndale's finest young men, Mr. W. K. Calbreath, Jr., who in conversation with a representative of the Champion let it be known that he has decided to enter the race for the legislature. Mr. Calbreath is a young attorney and is building up a profitable law practice, and which he is rather reluctant to think of giving it only a part of his time which would be required if he held a public office. But the encouragement of his many loyal friends here have caused him to make the final decision to enter the race and he says his announcement will be forthcoming at an early date. He is a splendid young man and the Champion would like to pay him a just compliment this week but space forbids.—Thorndale Champion.

LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody Will Know

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

Well-known druggists say it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.

A. & M. FILLING MORE IMPORTANT PLACE IN TEXAS AGRICULTURE.

College Station, Texas, Feb. 5.—Many new extensions, increases and developments of the A. & M. College of Texas have given it much greater usefulness to the people of Texas in the past year, President W. B. Bizzell is reporting in his annual accounting to the Board of Directors which has been released for publication.

In the period of time the College had a total enrollment of all classes of students of 3490. Of this number 1757 were degree students. This was increase in total number of students of 626. The demonstration work of the Extension division of the College was greatly increased, fifteen counties voting for employment of county farm agent work and twenty-one for home demonstration work for the first time. Progress was made by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, research division of the institution, in its study of plant and animal diseases, research and findings in the economics of farming and ranching, development of new plant strains, determination of feeding values and related lines of research. Progress of physical development was indicated in the building of the new administration building for the Extension Service at a cost of $150,000 and the establishment of the agricultural and citrus fruit experiment station in the Rio Grande Valley out of the appropriation of $50,000 made by the last Legislature. Emphasis is placed conspicuously on the increasing number of contracts that the College is making for dissemination of the valuable information assembled at the College. The report shows that every county and almost every organization identified with Texas agriculture and industrial enterprise is receiving assistance from some division or department of the College.

funds with which to work with, and he desires to be retained in his present position in order to complete plans he has laid and work out his road program in a manner which he feels sure will meet the whole-hearted approval of all concerned. He has made a special study of the peculiar conditions which has confronted him in his work as commissioner during these four years and now that he will have more money as a result of the maintenance tax recently voted he feels that he should have a chance to render the people the service which he was not able to give heretofore because of the lack of road funds.

Mr. Moore says if elected he will see to it that whatever road funds are obtained through a bond issue will be protected against graft or careless disbursements, that his experience during the past has made it possible for him to look after the financial interests of the tax payers better than ever, he urges his friends to consider the facts as presented above before they cast their votes for a new man, one not having had to "buck" the ravages of excessive rains and a money shortage at the same time. He has no hesitancy in offering for a third term because he feels that the majority of roads in the precinct needs the service of an experienced commissioner. He will appreciate your vote and influence.—Thorndale Champion.

Summa Cum Laude—Mildred Chambers.
Cum Laude Amplia Et Magna—F. J. Cox.
Magna Cum Laude—Mary Jo Harlan.

SAYS ELECTION LAWS IN TEXAS GROSSLY VIOLATED

BALLOT SUPERVISOR THINKS SENATE WILL THROW OUT CONTEST.

San Antonio, Texas, Feb. 2.—An assertion there were so many irregularities and flagrant violations of the Texas election laws in the last general election, the United States Senate, which is investigating the Paddy-Mayfield senatorial contest will be compelled to declare the election void, was made in San Antonio Saturday morning by Hume Graves, deputy sergeant at arms of the United States Senate, who is supervising the collection of the ballots.

Among the irregularities Mr. Graves said he had found were ballot boxes which have been opened, others with the seals broken and the keys left in the locks, some missing altogether and other boxes not even marked to show in what election they were used. Mr. Graves also declared he has signed statements of election officers who admit that they wrote the name of Mayfield on the ballots and passed them to voters.

"There have been so many irregularities and so many flagrant violations of the Terrell election law," Mr. Graves declared, "that the only thing the Senate can do, in my opinion, is to declare the election void. With the shape in which I have found the ballots, it will be utterly impossible to make an intelligent investigation into the senatorial election contest."

Mr. Graves said he has checked up on counties, exclusive of Bexar, totaling approximately 165 precincts. In two-thirds of these counties, he declared, the officials don't know whether the ballots they are sending in were used in the primary of the November elections. Not over ten of the precincts checked up, Mr. Graves declared, had the boxes been properly sealed and marked as required by law.

"One County Judge even admitted to me," Mr. Graves said, "that the boxes in his county had been opened. In two other counties the boxes were missing entirely. One county claimed, while officials in the other county didn't know what had become of them."

Mr. Graves declared that he found the ballots generally in a "deplorable condition," some of them even out of the boxes and scattered around.

"It is my candid opinion that the Senate when it sees the condition of the ballots and learns of the numerous violations of the election laws," Mr. Graves said, "will throw the election out."

The Senate is scheduled to take up the Paddy-Mayfield contest on Feb. 11. Mr. Graves says it will take him a week or ten days to complete his work in the State.

TYLER COMMERCIAL COLLEGE, TYLER, TEXAS, HAS A STUDENT WELFARE DEPARTMENT AND HAS MADE MANY IMPROVEMENTS FOR 1924.

The Tyler Commercial College is highly complimented by the Business Men and Parents for always looking after the welfare of its students, both young men and women, in the students' boarding homes. In addition to this, the school has employed Mrs. McKenna, a well-trained and practical matron of high standing who fully understands the moral and physical needs of the students. One of her duties is to see that the students are placed in homes that are properly prepared to take care of them, both as to sanitation and to food. Mrs. McKenna's experience and training enables her to do this work in a most satisfactory manner. She is ideally fitted for this work and has demonstrated her ability. It is the policy of the school to look out for the welfare of the students without extra cost to the student, and this has much to do with making it the largest commercial school in the country.

An audit of the rates for board and room has just been made which shows an average of $21.90 for young men, and $22.90 for young ladies.

The Radio and Civil Service Departments, which have been recently added to the courses taught in Tyler Commercial College are growing rapidly. Students are enrolling in these Departments every day. One cannot conceive of the great demand at this time for Radio Experts. Radio is the world's newest industry, and, in keeping of the high standards of the school, a first-class Radio Equipment has been installed. Both Broadcasting and Receiving Sets, second to none, are being used in this Department, for teaching and experimental purposes. The Operator in charge is thoroughly competent, making this station one of the few first class stations in the country. The Broadcasting call for Tyler Commercial College Broadcasting Station is WOAF. This school makes a specialty of training young men for Government positions as Radio Operators. The Civil Service Department of Tyler Commercial College prepares its graduates for examination in Civil Service lines; such as, Bookkeepers, Stenographers, Typists, Railway Clerks, Rural Carriers, etc.

BAKING IN THE HOME.

By Helen Harrington Downing.

For the past few years there has been a noticeable tendency to buy ready baked and delicatessen foods instead of preparing them at home; and with many it has become a permanent habit, hard to drop.

Lately, however, it has been noticed, home baking is again finding itself of prime importance among other household duties and new as well as old favorite recipes are being exchanged. Card index recipe boxes are given to the bride-to-be; while housewives and students are taking as great pride in showing their ability in the culinary line as the chef and teacher.

Home baked foods have after all the best flavor and taste, and real appreciation is shown when a plate of fresh home baked doughnuts or crullers are served where bakery goods have been the usual thing, and when hot light crisp fritters are served for dessert, every one is bound to be pleased.

When a platter of piping hot corn fritters or salmon croquettes, seasoned just right, are brought to the table with suitable accompanying sauce or gravy, the appreciation shown is sure to repay the efforts of the one who prepared them.

These things certainly show we are getting back some of the good old fashioned days of home happiness.

The fat should be tested to see that it is at the right temperature for the best cooking. Not more than four or five doughnuts should be fried at one time when using a medium sized kettle such as is found in the average kitchen. A larger number will cool the fat and the result is the doughnuts are apt to crack. Neither will fried food be as crisp if cooked in too much of a hurry. Slow but not too slow cooking is preferable.

The frying basket should be lowered gently into the hot fat until the contents are completely covered with the hot fat. After frying, lift up the basket and allow it to hang on a hook or strip at side of kettle, and drain off any excess fat. Lift out doughnuts on to a piece of clean unglazed brown paper, which will absorb any further grease. Change the paper as soon as it becomes greasy.

SEVERE CRAMPING SPELLS, PAINS IN BACK AND SIDES

"My trouble has been periodic cramping spells," says Mrs. C. C. Draper, of Atlanta, Texas. "For several years these have come on me so bad that I had to quit my work and go to bed. Every month I would stay in bed from one to two days. The pains in my back and sides were awful."

"This went on for several months after I was married until, one time when I was having a bad spell, my husband suggested that I try Cardui. I said I would try it, so he got me a bottle at the store and I began to take it."

"It seemed like I improved from the very first dose. When I had taken one bottle I was very much better. I did not cramp so hard the next month and I ate and slept better. I was not nearly so nervous, either. I thought Cardui was fine, so I continued the treatment until I had taken five bottles, at which time I felt completely well. I had no more cramping spells at all, and my health was as good as anybody's. I am feeling fine now and I give all the credit to Cardui, for I had been suffering for years before I took it."

Cardui is a vegetable extract, containing no harmful ingredients. It is made from mild-acting medicinal herbs with a gentle, tonic, strengthening effect upon certain female organs and upon the system in general. Its users have testified to its special value at the time of entering womanhood at maturity and at the time of the change of life.

For over 40 years, Cardui has been tested in use by thousands of women who have written to tell of the great benefit they have received from it. For over 600 years, medical authorities have recommended one of the principal ingredients of Cardui in the treatment of certain female complaints.

Cardui, the woman's tonic, tested by years, is today the product of many years of experience and investigation. It is manufactured in up-to-date laboratories by the most modern and sanitary methods of pharmaceutical science and is for sale by all druggists.

more Ford cars and trucks were produced last year than the previous year, an increase of over 50 per cent.

In spite of this tremendous increase in production, it was impossible to meet delivery requirements during the spring and summer months when orders for 350,000 Ford Cars and Trucks could not be filled.

This year winter buying for immediate delivery has been more active than ever before—and in addition 200,000 orders have already been booked through the Ford Weekly Purchase Plan for spring delivery.

These facts clearly indicate that the demand during this spring and summer will be far greater than ever, and that orders should be placed immediately with Ford Dealers as a means of protection against delay in securing your Ford Car or Truck or Fordson Tractor.

LIONS HEAR TRIBUTE TO THE LATE PRESIDENT

HON. O. L. KIDD EXTOLLS CHARACTER OF GREAT DEPARTED STATESMAN.

Woodrow Wilson the statesman, scholar and educator was eulogized in a memorial address by O. L. Kidd before the Lions Club at the Tuesday meeting. The address is as follows:

Mr. Toastmaster, and Gentlemen of the Lions' Club:

About an hour ago, when I was invited to appear at your Festive Board and pay a word of tribute to our fallen chieftan, I was oppressed with two rather conflicting emotions—one, that an address before your organization should exhibit some degree of preparation; the other, that in paying a tribute to so lofty a character as Woodrow Wilson, words should be quite spontaneous.

My friends, truly a great chieftan has fallen. We of the South were perhaps a little partial to him, because he was the son of a southern state—the Old Dominion—and was the first son of the South to fill the presidency since the war between the states. But this is not the reason we admired and respected him. He was loyal to the Southland, but as President he knew no South, no North, no East, no West. And we admired and respected him because his statesmanship was too broad and his sense of justice too lofty to tolerate a feeling of sectionalism. His place in history is that of one of the most commanding figures of the human race. Of all the great outstanding American characters, it may be truly said of him—and without disparagement to others—that he was second to none and towered above most of the others.

Maybe he had his equal in finished scholarship and as an educator, maybe he had his equal in the field of letters, maybe he had his equal as a statesman and maybe he had his equal as an intellectual giant and as a philosopher; but what character in history has equaled him in all of these combined?

He is known as the War President; and yet he was essentially an apostle of peace. Our country has not forgotten how cautiously he proceeded in the anxious weeks and months of 1916 and the early part of 1917, how that when insult added to injury were heaped upon our national life and the whole country was clamoring to enter the war, he waited and hoped that we might avoid the terrible conflict, and how that only when it was certain that we either had to take up arms or to sacrifice our national self-respect did he speak the word that conquered the unwholly ambition of unscrupulous war lords. Though an apostle of peace, he was not a half-hearted leader in war. Having set the gun to his shoulder, he took aim and fired; and the shot he fired saved the world for Democracy. A War President, he was the apostle who gave the world its first plan for universal peace. He survived the conflict of war but came out with as deep a wound as any soldier who entered the service.

The scholar, the statesman, the apostle of peace has ended his career on earth. Will his achievements pass with him? Mark Anthony who spoke at Caesar's funeral is accredited with the statement that what good men do "is oft interred with their bones." Pardon me if I take issue with the ancient orator and statesman. Woodrow Wilson's body will return to the earth; but the great achievements he wrought and the impress of his life upon civilization will live from generation to generation. And as surely as the right will, in time, prevail the plan for universal peace, substantially as worked out by him will one day become effective. Our country has been signally blessed in her brief national life. It is the wealthiest of the nations. Yet it is not wealth, but great leaders, that have been her richest blessings. Some one has said that when the great Jehovah wishes to bless mankind He does not send argosies of wealth in the form of barbaric gold and splendor, but He sends a truly great man to serve as a leader. Among the richest blessings our country has known is the life of the matchless leader who has just returned to God who sent him.

He was a finished scholar, a great statesman, a matchless leader, a dauntless and commanding figure in the affairs of all the world—and withal a beautiful Christian spirit. How comforting to his friends and admirers and to those nearer and dearer to him, that the scholar's renown, the statesman's achievements, the War President's triumphant victory did not surpass the beauty of his Christian character. He gave his life for peace on earth; his will be peace eternal in the great beyond. "Beyond these chilling winds and wintry skies,

Beyond death's cloudy portal, There is a land where beauty never dies

And peace becomes immortal." Those who kept the last watch tell us that the end came just as a tired man falls asleep, and that he expressed his readiness to go. After the taxing labors of the educator, the man of letters, the statesman, are over, after suffering the hardships of war, after retiring from the strenuous affairs of men and of nations in which he took so active a part—after life's fitful fever is ended—what a blessing and how fitting that he may lie down to peaceful dreams.

THE ETHICAL SERVICE BUSINESS RENDERS

BY J. H. PUELICHER
President of the American Bankers Association

I sometimes think we lay too much stress on the technical efficiency of our business instrumentalities and too little on their moral services.

J. H. Puelicher

Is it enough to say to our radical opponents of the present capitalistic order that it effectively feeds and clothes and houses and furnishes us with physical comforts and pleasures and therefore it is good? What is not enough. They can rightly tell us that, even though a system may minister to our physical well-being, if it stunts us morally, if it does not positively make us better ethically, it is an inadequate system.

The general answer to this assertion is obvious. The very fact that our industry, commerce and finance serve us so simply with the materials and means for physical well-being gives us the opportunity to build and support our churches, to foster the arts, to develop our great educational system,—to be kind to one another.

But need we deal in generalities? Do we not find in the direct effect of our business upon the individual much to improve his ethical standards? To toughen his moral fiber? Is it not good for the personal character of the race to do business as we are now doing it?

Let us take the business of banking, for example. Is it a mere mechanism or is it a vital moral force? Does it do more than, by facilitating production, raise the physical standard of living, or is there anything inherent in the manner and methods of banking that raises the moral standard of living as well?

Nine-tenths of our business is done by means of credit. The great bulk of that credit is obtained from the banks. It is obtained from the banks because men have character,—because they are honest, because they keep faith,—because they can be trusted.

If they did not have these qualities they could not do business with credit, they could not do business at the banks. We say banks deal in credit. That is but a way of saying they deal in honor and honesty. They build the business structure with the faith of man in man.

The part banking plays in our business life is growing. That means that the faith of men in each other is growing. The more men who come to the banks with characters that entitle them to credit,—the more men who realize that to gain credit at the banks, they must possess themselves with characters that win them unquestioned trust, the higher becomes the ethical standards of the nation.

Is not this a great moral service that banking renders? It is a greater justification for our present financial system than even its wonderful efficiency in providing us with the material things of life. No greater service could be rendered the nation.

AMERICA'S NEW PLACE

Many Americans fancy that, because labor is well employed and our industries have been reporting substantial earnings and improvement over the depression period, normalcy has been restored. The truth is, what we must consider normal in the future will be an entirely different thing from what was considered normal prior to the war. One reason is, our new place in the world as the leading creditor nation. That change is a permanent one. We are not going to return to the old position of debtor nation. Bankers in the agricultural communities have come to the conclusion that we cannot afford to maintain an attitude of isolation and that opinion is not a personal one. The men I have talked with are voicing the ideas of the people with whom they have daily business contact.

A great many politico-economists have warned against America's entrance into the European situation, asserting that our foreign trade makes up less than 20 per cent of our production, and therefore is too small an item to be vital or to risk our investment in. They forget, and most people who have listened to them forget, that the unimportant 20 per cent is the difference between full employment of our industries and labor and much unemployment and business depression. If a manufacturing enterprise is running at 90 per cent of capacity, it may be making a fairly good showing of earnings, but it is not running at normal and is not earning the margin which it should earn in order to be fully prosperous. It appears obvious that we shall have to build up foreign investments in this country. But it will be necessary to go slowly in the matter of foreign investments. There must be assurance that whatever we loan will be used for productive purposes.—William E. Knox, Sec. and Vice-President, American Bankers Association.

WHY BANKS?

LESSON III

By J. H. PUELICHER, Chairman
Committee on Public Education, American Bankers Association.

Banks are defined as "institutions chartered to receive deposits and make loans." What is a bank deposit? What is a bank loan?

BANK DEPOSIT = money or checks left with a bank to be kept safe from thieves, fire and other loss; to earn interest, if in a savings account; to be convenient for the future use of the depositor; to be loaned out to earn the expenses of the bank's services, and interest for the depositor when in an interest bearing account.

J. H. Puelicher

BANK LOAN = advance of money to help business enterprise so that business may again help the earner and pay by giving employment.

In the Middle Ages safes were very few. Goldsmiths kept their jewelry in strong boxes, and also accepted for safekeeping, for a fee, money packed and marked with the owner's name. In those days money saved lay idle; today it is put to work by banks for the benefit of the depositor and the community.

BREAK CHEST COLDS WITH RED PEPPER

Ease your tight, aching chest. Stop the pain. Break up the congestion. Feel a bad cold loosen up in just a short time.

"Red Pepper Rub" is the cold remedy that brings quickest relief. It cannot hurt you and it certainly seems to end the tightness and drive the congestion and soreness right out.

Nothing has such concentrated, penetrating heat as red peppers, and when heat penetrates right down into colds, congestion, aching muscles and sore, stiff joints relief comes at once.

The moment you apply Red Pepper Rub you feel the tingling heat. In three minutes the congested spot is warmed through and through. When you are suffering from a cold, rheumatism, backache, stiff neck or sore muscles, just get a jar of Rowles Red Pepper Rub, made from red peppers, at any drug store. You will have the quickest relief known. Always say "Rowles."

MAD DOG GOES ON RAMPAGE HERE SUNDAY.

Mattie Lehman, nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Lehman, was bitten by a dog afflicted with hydrophobia on the streets of Thorndale last Sunday afternoon while she was on her way to town to visit and make a purchase at one of the drug stores.

The little girl was alone at the time and as she came down the street and approached the building owned by Rev. Sam Elliott in which the Mexican Blue Cross holds its meetings, she met the dog on the sidewalk just as he had snapped at a negro man standing near, who scared the dog away from himself and thought nothing of it at the time, but as the Lehman girl passed the dog attacked her and brought the blood from her left wrist. Mr. Arthur Young approached the scene about that time and fearing that the dog was mad notified Dr. Laurence concerning the incident, who gave first aid relief and the dog was subsequently run down and killed by men who collected for the hunt right away.

The dog had been in town all morning and had attacked Jim Davis while riding his wheel about nine o'clock in the forenoon. Mr. C. W. Gunn who was standing near hit the dog with a rock and drove him away but not suspecting the dog being mad paid but little attention to it further. After the dog was killed the head was taken to Taylor by Mr. W. D. June where it was sent to Austin on the Sunshine Special for Examination by the Pastur Institute the following morning, and the word came back to Thorndale Monday that the dog had Rabies. Mattie Lehman, the victim, was taken to Austin for treatment Monday afternoon.—Thorndale Champion.

DEALER INFLUENCE GREATER IN 1924.

"The local dealer is going to exercise a greater influence on car selection this year than ever before," says G. C. White of the White House Motor Company.

"More innovations in automobile design and construction will appear in 1924 than in any previous two years in automotive history, and confused by contradictory claims of manufacturer and engineer, the car owner is going to depend on his local dealer to know the facts and tell them."

"After all, that is as it should be. The truly modern dealer in automobiles should be the local source of authoritative information on all questions involving cars. He is in a position to know and his duty to his community puts upon him the responsibility of knowing."

THE ETHICAL SERVICE BUSINESS RENDERERS

BY J. H. PUELICHER

President of the American Bankers Association

I sometimes think we lay too much stress on the technical efficiency of our business instrumentalities and too little on their moral services.

Is it enough to say to our radical opponents of the present capitalistic order that it effectively feeds and clothes and houses and furnishes us with physical comforts and pleasures and therefore it is good? That is not enough. They can rightfully tell us that, even though a system may minister to our physical well-being, if it stunts us morally, if it does not positively make us better ethically, it is an inadequate system.

The general answer to this assertion is obvious. The very fact that our industry, commerce and finance serve us so amply with the materials and means for physical well-being gives us the opportunity to build and support our churches, to foster the arts, to develop our great educational system,—to be kind to one another.

But need we deal in generalities? Do we not find in the direct effect of our business upon the individual much to improve his ethical standards? To toughen his moral fiber? Is it not good for the personal character of the race to do business as we are now doing it?

Let us take the business of banking, for example. Is it a mere mechanism or is it a vital moral force? Does it do more than, by facilitating production, raise the physical standard of living, or is there anything inherent in the manner and methods of banking that raises the moral standard of living as well?

Nine-tenths of our business is done by means of credit. The great bulk of that credit is obtained from the banks. It is obtained from the banks because men have character,—because they are honest, because they keep faith,—because they can be trusted.

If they did not have these qualities they could not do business with credit, they could not do business at the banks. We say banks deal in credit. That is but a way of saying they deal in honor and honesty. They build the business structure with the faith of man in man.

The part banking plays in our business life is growing. That means that the faith of men in each other is growing. The more men who come to the banks with characters that entitle them to credit,—the more men who realize that to gain credit at the banks, they must possess themselves with characters that win them unquestioned trust, the higher becomes the ethical standards of the nation.

Is not this a great moral service that banking renders? It is a greater justification for our present financial system than even its wonderful efficiency in providing us with the material things of life. No greater service could be rendered the nation.

AMERICA'S NEW PLACE

Many Americans fancy that, because labor is well employed and our industries have been reporting substantial earnings and improvement over the depression period, normalcy has been restored. The truth is, what we must consider normal in the future will be an entirely different thing from what was considered normal prior to the war. One reason is, our new place in the world as the leading creditor nation. That change is a permanent one. We are not going to return to the old position of debtor nation. Bankers in the agricultural communities have come to the conclusion that we cannot afford to maintain an attitude of isolation and that opinion is not a personal one. The men I have talked with are voicing the ideas of the people with whom they have daily business contact.

A great many politico-economists have warned against America's entrance into the European situation asserting that our foreign trade makes up less than 20 per cent of our production, and therefore is too small an item to be vital or to risk our investment in. They forget, and most people who have listened to them forget, that the unimportant 20 per cent is the difference between full employment of our industries and labor and much unemployment and business depression. If a manufacturing enterprise is running at 90 per cent of capacity, it may be making a fairly good showing of earnings, but it is not running at normal and is not earning the margin which it should earn in order to be fully prosperous. It appears obvious that we shall have to build up foreign investments in this country. But it will be necessary to go slowly in the matter of foreign investments. There must be assurance that whatever we loan will be used for productive purposes.—William E. Knox, Second Vice-President, American Bankers Association.
